

Family & Children's Place

Building brighter futures.

Plant a Pinwheel, Prevent Child Abuse!

Please consider sponsoring one or more pinwheels - $5 for each pinwheel. Every pinwheel is a symbol of help, hope and healing for children who have experienced abuse and neglect.

Please click here to sponsor a pinwheel today!

Sponsor a pinwheel for $5

Each pinwheel represents help, hope and healing for children, families hurt by abuse...

Sponsored pinwheels will be displayed in a Pinwheel Garden at Family & Children's Place thru April.

To sponsor a pinwheel, visit www.famchildplace.org/donate

Family & Children's Place

Annual Louisville Building Brighter Futures Breakfast this Month!

The Annual Louisville Building Brighter Futures Breakfast is at 8 a.m., Wednesday, April 20, at The Seelbach Hilton. Abuse survivor Samantha Watson will give the keynote, and Kentucky Attorney General Andy Beshear and First Lady Glenna Bevin will attend, with Beshear discussing the statewide sexual abuse trainings he and Mrs. Bevin have established. Other speakers will share their stories of healing and regaining hope from Family & Children's Place.

Admission is free, but please come ready to donate to this important cause.

To reserve your seat, email Heather Bruner at hbruner@famchildplace.org or click the photo below for more information.

Your generosity to F&CP can provide you with some tax relief

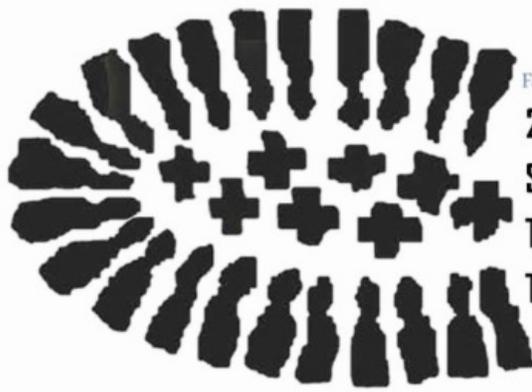

Financial laws require Individual Retirement Account (IRA) owners who are age 70½ or older to take a minimum distribution from their account(s) each year, producing ordinary - and usually minimal - income for the recipient. But now, after years of congressional mights and maybes about the future of qualified charitable IRA distributions, there's another, more beneficial route.

Click here for the full article...

Stomp the Silence: Taking steps towards healing

Join us in supporting our friend Katya Estes and her annual 5k run/walk, Stomp the silence: Taking steps toward healing, Saturday, April 16, at Seneca Park Loop. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. This event is FREE and family friendly. All donations go to Family & Children's Place.

Click here to visit the Facebook event...

Family & Children's Place

2nd annual
STOMP THE SILENCE:
Taking Steps
Toward Healing!

Saturday, April 16, Seneca Park Loop

Every step of this stomp event is another step in the journey to end child abuse.
— Katya Estes

Registration: 8:30 am.
5K run/walk: 9 am.

Do yoga, help children!

Throughout April, 502 Power Yoga, 2210 Dundee Rd., Louisville, Ky., 40205, will donate all proceeds from its weekly Karma Class to Family & Children's Place!

Classes are from 5:30-6:30 p.m. every Sunday.

Click here to visit their website...

KARMA CLASS
Sundays 5:30-6:30PM

APRIL'S KARMA PARTNER

Family & Children's Place
building brighter futures.

STAY CONNECTED:

Family & Children's Place | (502) 893-3900 | <http://www.familyandchildrensplace.org>